Fortem Capital Absolute Return Fund

Monthly Report – 28th August 2026

UK & EU – For professional and institutional investors only

Cost | Liquidity | Correlation – by design

Investment Overview

The Fund aims to achieve positive absolute returns over rolling three - year periods, irrespective of market conditions, taking into account both capital and income returns.

Background

- Access to alternative investments & outcomes thereof limited by:
  - Cost
  - Liquidity
  - Unstable correlation
- The Fortem Capital Absolute Return Fund seeks to address those issues:
  - A cost-efficient & highly liquid core alternative solution with low & stable beta
- The Fund provides investors with a beta to equity long / short at lower cost and with stable market beta through time

The Fund Will

- Invest 100% in a long leg of factor-optimised global equities
- Invest 70% in a short leg of the global equity parent index
- With the remaining cash, employ stringent counterparty controls, limiting credit exposure to a notch above IG as well as employing controls around country, sector and factor exposure

Key Benefits

- Established factor-optimised index methodology offers diversification
- Cost-efficient core alternative exposure
- Targeting a low & stable beta through time
- Liquid and transparent solution
