Fortem Capital Managed Futures Fund

Monthly Report – 30th October 2026

UK & EU – For professional and institutional investors only

FORTEM CAPITAL

Cost | Liquidity | Correlation – by design

Investment Overview

The Fortem Capital Managed Futures Fund is a systematic managed futures strategy seeking to deliver positive absolute returns over rolling three-year periods, regardless of market conditions. The Fund takes diversified long and short exposures across global equities, fixed income, currencies and commodities. A dedicated protection overlay seeks to mitigate losses during sharp equity market dislocations, supporting a more resilient return profile across different market environments.

Return engines

Income + Diversifier + Protection

Income
Collateral Return

Return from the Fund's high-quality collateral portfolio, providing a liquid base level of return.

Diversifier
Trend Premia

Systematically captures persistent price trends across global markets, providing directional exposure to macro regime shifts and sustained dislocations.

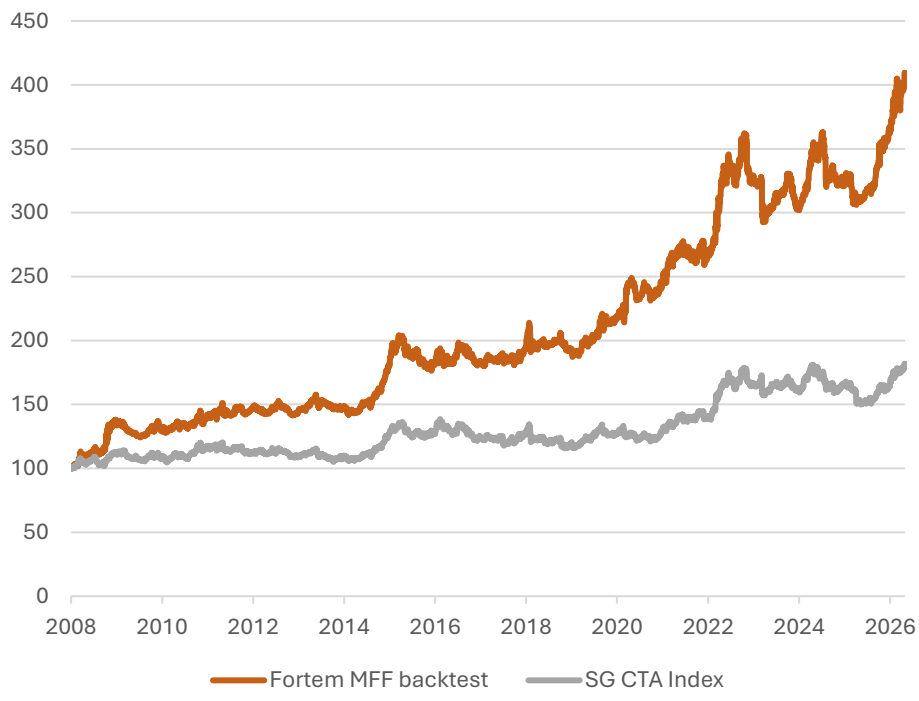

Protection
Convex Overlay

Provides convex exposure to sharp market reversals, completing the return profile of the trend strategy.

Key Benefits

- Cost-efficient managed futures exposure via systematic CTA replication
- Daily liquidity across a diversified set of global futures markets
- A differentiated return source targeting low correlation to traditional equity markets through time
- A more complete return profile across different types of market stress
